

Privacy Policy

Effective date: 1 October 2026 | Website: www.ssem.in

This Privacy Policy explains how Shree Shyam Earthmovers LLP (SSEM) handles personal information submitted through the contact and transport enquiry form on www.ssem.in.

1. Scope of this Policy

This Privacy Policy explains how Shree Shyam Earthmovers LLP (SSEM) handles personal information submitted through the contact and transport enquiry form on www.ssem.in. It is intended for visitors and prospective clients who choose to contact SSEM through the website.

2. Information We Collect

The website contact form currently requests the following information:

Field	What it contains
Contact Person / Manager	Name or identifying name of the person making the enquiry
Official Email Address	Business or other email address supplied by the enquirer
Company / Contractor Name	Organisation name, where supplied
Origin / Destination Corridor	Route, corridor or location information, where supplied
Haulage Tonnage & Requirements	Project, material, quantity, truck, duration or other requirements entered in the message

3. Purpose of Processing

SSEM uses information submitted through the form to receive, review and respond to transport or project enquiries; understand the requested service, route and haulage requirements; communicate with the person or organisation making the enquiry; prepare or discuss a potential business engagement; and maintain appropriate business records of enquiries and communications.

SSEM does not use the information submitted through the website for unrelated purposes.

4. How a Contact Form Submission Is Transmitted

The website currently uses FormSubmit to transmit contact-form submissions to SSEM's official correspondence email address, info@ssem.in. FormSubmit processes the submission as a third-party service used for delivery of the enquiry. FormSubmit states in its published documentation that form submissions are retained in its submission archive for 30 days.

5. Use of Analytics and Advertising Trackers

As of the effective date of this Policy, SSEM does not use Google Analytics on the website and does not intentionally use the submitted contact-form information for advertising or behavioural profiling.

6. Sharing and Disclosure

SSEM does not sell or rent personal information submitted through its website. Information may be disclosed where reasonably necessary to operate the contact process, where a service provider is used to transmit or store an enquiry, where required by applicable law or legal process, or where necessary to protect SSEM's rights, safety or property.

7. Data Security

SSEM takes reasonable measures appropriate to its website and business operations to protect personal information against unauthorised access, misuse, alteration, disclosure or loss. No method of transmission over the internet or electronic storage can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

8. Data Retention

SSEM may retain enquiry information and related correspondence for as long as reasonably necessary to respond to the enquiry, support a potential or existing business relationship, maintain business records, comply with applicable legal requirements, or establish, exercise or defend legal claims. Where a third-party service retains a copy of the submission, its own retention period and terms may also apply. FormSubmit currently states that submissions in its archive are retained for 30 days.

9. Your Requests and Rights

Where applicable under law, an individual may contact SSEM to request access to, correction of, updating of, or erasure of personal information, or to raise a privacy-related grievance. Requests can be made by email using the contact details below. SSEM may need to verify the identity and authority of the requester before acting on a request.

Where processing is based on consent and the applicable legal framework provides a right to withdraw that consent, a request may also be made through the same contact channel. Withdrawal does not affect processing that was lawfully carried out before withdrawal and does not prevent processing that may be permitted or required by law.

11. Changes to this Policy

SSEM may update this Privacy Policy when its website, data practices or applicable legal requirements change. The latest version will be identified by its effective date and published through the website privacy link.

12. Important Note

This Policy is written for the current SSEM website and its contact-form workflow. It should be updated if SSEM adds analytics, advertising, cookies or other tracking technologies, additional data fields, customer accounts, online payments, file uploads, or other processing activities.
